

RE: proceeding: 02-278

I feel strongly:

- 1) that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections;
- 2) that my time at home is much more pleasant because I am interrupted by significantly fewer telemarketing phone calls due to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law;
- 3) about the importance of this Indiana law in that it results in an improved quality of life through greater privacy
